

WHEREAS, The community of mankind is well served when dedicated men and women give themselves over to proclaiming the Good News, ministering to those in need, educating those in search of growth and enlightenment, and providing strong leadership in times of doubt and uncertainty; and,

WHEREAS, The Christian churches within the State of South Dakota have contributed, since territorial days, to the general welfare of all people and to this day serve us well through their hospitals, schools, social service centers, and other ministries, as well as in their houses of worship; and,

WHEREAS, Thursday, June 1, 1978, will mark the Ordination to the Catholic Priesthood of Charles L. Cimpl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard J. Cimpl of Tabor, South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, This celebration will take place in the Cathedral of Saint Joseph in Sioux Falls, South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, We are privileged that Father Cimpl has chosen to give himself to the work of the Church and the service and welfare of our people through ordination to the ministry of the Priesthood; and,

WHEREAS, Father will celebrate a Mass of Thanksgiving on Sunday, June 4, 1978, in St. Wenceslaus Church, Tabor, South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, While Nancy and I regret that we will be unable to share personally with Father and his family in the joy and happiness of this day, we do want him to know that our thoughts and prayers will be with him; and,

WHEREAS, The Ordination and Mass of Thanksgiving of Father Charles Cimpl are worthy of public recognition in the State of South Dakota, and it is fitting and proper that the Governor make note of these special events:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Sunday, June 4, 1978, as in South Dakota, and ask that this be a day of special celebration in his honor, and Nancy and I join with his many friends and relatives in wishing him a day filled with all of the blessings of love, joy and friendship.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fourth Day of May, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Eight.
